The Anishinaabe include the Ojibwe, Odawa and Pottawatomi Nations collectively known as the Three Fires Confederacy. We are dedicated to honouring Indigenous history and culture and are committed to moving forward in the spirit of reconciliation and respect with all First Nations, Metis and Inuit People.

8. Chairperson's Remarks:

First, I want to thank Rachael for her participation and contributions to the Essa Public Library Board. Rachael has been posted and this is her last meeting with us. I know we all wish you the very best going forward.

As I mentioned last meeting, our 3rd year of the 4-year term is the heaviest for governance, and I am happy to say that we are doing very well in meeting our scheduled obligations.

In your Board package you received the comprehensive Community Survey results. I hope you all had the opportunity to review – especially the questions requiring comments. There was a lot of valuable information collected to be used for Strategic Planning, Budget Planning, programming and general operation of the library.

Tonight, we will review a proposed draft of the Strategic Plan for 2025 – 2028. We are a little ahead of schedule with this, but that is great because we have the opportunity to alter or enrich without a difficult time restraint. I am looking forward to your comments before the final document is prepared.

This is our last governance meeting of the Essa Public Library Board before our summer hiatus. Budgeting will start to take precedence in the fall, but before then we all have the opportunity to take a break from Board responsibilities. Enjoy your summer!

Judith Hunter
